The image shows a screenshot of a web browser displaying a product detail page for a smartphone. The product is identified as 'SmartPhone Oppo A5'. The page includes a product image, the name, price (Rp 235.555), stock level (12), and category (Elektronik). A red 'Tutup' button is visible at the bottom right of the card. Below the browser window, an Excel spreadsheet titled 'Orders_Export_2025-11-28,13-49-50.xlsx' is open, showing a list of products with columns for ID, Product Name, Price, Stock, Amount, Total Price, Stock Product Now, Category Product, Created_at, and Update_at. The data includes various items like Sneakers, Hats, Dresses, Bookshelves, Dining Tables, Bed Frames, Office Chairs, and Headphones. The Excel interface shows standard ribbon tabs and a formula bar.
